

Triumph Hotels Names Breandan Gallagher as New General Manager for The Iroquois Hotel, New York City

This quintessential Midtown hotel ideally situated near Times Square and Grand Central Station has just welcomed a brand new General Manager, Breandan Gallagher.

A seasoned hospitality executive with over 18 years in the luxury hospitality industry, Breandan joins The Iroquois New York as General Manager from the W Hoboken Hotel, where he served as Director of Operations and Interim General Manager. His other previous industry roles include Director of Rooms, Director of Conference Services and Director of Front Office and Night Manager at the St. Regis Hotel New York, where he worked over a 15-year period, and various Front Office roles at The Shelbourne Hotel, Dublin.

Originally from Ireland, Breandan graduated with a Hotel and Catering Management Higher Diploma from the Dublin Institute of Technology, and Bachelors of Science Degree in Management from the University of Dublin, Trinity College.

About Triumph Hotels

From polished Midtown luxury to chic downtown style, Triumph Hotels is a collection of six boutique Manhattan hotels each offering a distinct take on the city experience. The Iroquois New York, Hotel Chandler, Hotel Belleclaire, The Cosmopolitan, The Evelyn and The Washington Jefferson showcase history, architecture, design, service, and notable neighborhood locations. With complimentary Wi-Fi, in-the-know staff, and accommodations ideal for couples, families, business travelers and groups, guests will find exactly what they're looking for when Triumph Hotels welcome them to New York City. Learn more about the carefully curated collection of hotels at www.triumphhotels.com.

Contact: Hannah Gardiner, j public relations

hannah@jpublicrelations.com / 212.924.3600